

Removing Content From Google

This tool will guide you through the process of reporting content that you believe warrants removal from Google's services based on applicable laws. Completing this form will help ensure that we have all of the information necessary to investigate your specific inquiry and resolve it as quickly as possible.

If multiple Google products are affected, please note that you must submit a notice for each product affected.

If you have a specific legal issue concerning YouTube, please visit this link for further information. Please do not use this tool to report issues that relate to YouTube.

- I would like to file a counter to restore ad-serving that was disabled due to an alleged copyright violation.
- I have a court order declaring certain content unlawful (e.g., pursuant to a copyright or trademark infringement suit)
- I would like to report a product or service that circumvents copyright protection mechanisms
- Other legal issue that involves the removal of content

Are you the copyright owner or authorized to act on their behalf?

- No, I am not sure if I am authorized to act on the copyright owner's behalf
- Yes, I am the copyright owner or am authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed

IMPORTANT: If you knowingly misrepresent that material or activity is infringing, you may be subject to liability for damages. Accordingly, if you are not sure whether material available online infringes your copyright, we suggest that you first contact a lawyer. Please also note that your message to us may be forwarded to the party who filed the original copyright complaint.

If your concern is not related to copyright, do not submit your request here.

For information about resolving non-legal issues, please visit the Google help forums. If you have another legal reason for requesting content removal from Google, please go back to our main page to make the appropriate selection.
